Words Brittany Panter

Planners are looking to break the mould on their next event – they want bigger and better and are looking to impress. When a boardroom just won't do, there is an increasing number of unique venues to discover across Asia, from lush gardens to aircraft hangars. Planners looking to create a buzz need look no further; a variety of unique venues are on offer that do just that.

MALAYSIA

Tropical Spice Garden

A holistic eco-tourism destination located on eight acres of jungle in Penang, the Tropical Spice Garden contains hundreds of varieties of flora and fauna which make for a stunning setting for meetings, exclusive gatherings or team-building activities. Offering a seminar room, a water garden, bamboo garden and pavilion, the Tropical Spice Garden can cater to a wide variety of events.

TARGET GROUP: Incentive and team-building activities and small meetings

WOW FACTOR: Fun activities which include cooking classes, night walks and scavenger hunts, all in a tropical setting
